MFM Slater Income Fund Exceeds £100 million!

Press Release

Publish date: Monday 26th October 2015

Slater Investments, the award-winning fund manager, has broken through the £100 million threshold with its MFM Slater Income Fund.

Mark Slater, Chief Investment Officer, said: "I am delighted with the Income Fund's excellent performance, particularly during the challenging summer months. We are still finding good value and the Fund has plenty of capacity for additional money."

The investment team of Mark Slater, Ralph Baber, Barrie Newton and Nigel Milton, actively manage the MFM Slater Income Fund portfolio by investing in predominately UK listed equities.

The fund mainly invests in small, medium and large companies and income is distributed four times a year. The MFM Slater Income Fund, which was launched in September 2011, aims to produce an attractive and increasing level of income in addition to seeking long-term capital growth from a portfolio of investments.
