4 Client Identification

In order to comply with Anti-Money Laundering Regulations, we are required to verify the identity and address of the applicant. Please could you send us one document from each of the below categories for the registered holder (Section 1)

Category A - Identity Document
Current Signed Passport or Certified Copy
Driving Licence* or Certified Copy
Birth Certificate

Category B - Address Document
Utility Bill
Bank/Building Society/Financial Services Statement
Government Issued Document
Driving Licence* or Certified Copy

* A driving licence cannot be used for both categories

NB (1) - The address on all documents must match your listed address on this form.

NB (2) - Utility Bills and all Bank/Building Society/Financial Services documents must be less than 3 months old.

We understand that you may not have the documents we have requested. In this situation, we may be able to accept some of the following as evidence of your personal identity or address:

Residents in a nursing/residential home

If you live in a nursing home and are not able to provide any of the documents listed above, we can accept a letter from the manager or warden of the nursing/residential home confirming permanent residence there. This also applies if you are a Financial Adviser to a customer who is resident in a nursing/residential home.

Usually, this would support a piece of documentation from the 'Personal identity evidence' section such as an original notification letter from the Department of Work and Pensions (DWP) confirming the right to a state pension.

If you are providing documents on behalf of an incapacitated investor then an original Court Order appointing a deputy may also be accepted. This must be in respect of an appointment by the Court of Protection and name both the investor and the appointed deputy.

Armed Forces

We accept copies of documents certified as a true copy by a senior ranking officer. For details see 'Documents Certification' below.

In addition, we can accept an original UK Armed Forces ID card, or an appropriately certified copy.

Other documents that we may consider:

Please contact us if you don't have any of the documents listed above but can provide one of the following:

- Solicitor's letter confirming house purchase or land registry confirmation.
- Police warrant card (with photo identification).
- Vehicle Registration document.
- Probate document.
- Letter confirming your National Insurance Number (The National Insurance Card can't be accepted on its own).
- NHS Medical Card.
- Letter from a GP addressed to you, and on headed note paper.

For more information regarding Client Identification, please refer to our Anti-Money Laundering booklet that can be found in the Key Documents page on our website.

Whilst we can accept original documentation, we do not advise customers to send in original copies unless it is sent through registered post, we will then return in the same manner. We are unable to accept liability for any loss or damage upon return. Alternatively a copy of the documents can be sent as long as it is signed by a certifier. The certifier must write the date, full name, address and contact telephone number.

Document Certification:

The following people can certify documents:

- A director, officer or manager of a regulated financial services business which is operating in an equivalent jurisdiction, or of a branch or subsidiary of a group headquartered in an equivalent jurisdiction, which applies group standards to subsidiaries and branches worldwide and tests the application of, and compliance with, such standards.
- A lawyer or notary public (who is a member of a recognised professional body).
- An actuary or accountant (who is a member of a recognised professional body).
- A tax advisor (who is a member of a recognised professional body).
- A member of the judiciary, a senior civil servant or a serving police or customs officer.
- An officer of an embassy, consulate or high commission of the country of issue of documentary evidence of identity.
- An individual that is qualified to undertake certification services under the authority of the Certification and International Trade Committee.

The certifier must certify that he/she has seen the original documentation and must use the following wording when certifying any documents as true copies, ensuring the relevant statement is copied in its entirety:

•Proof of identity (photographic identity documents):

"Having seen the individual and the identification document at the same time, I certify that this is a true copy and the photograph bears a true likeness of [enter name]."

•All other documents:

"Having seen the original and photocopy document at the same time, I certify that this is a true copy."

In addition, the following details should be included in every instance so that the certifier may be contacted in the event of a query:

- Date
- First name(s) and surname
- Signature
- Company name
- Position
- Registration number (if a member of a recognised professional body)
- Contact details: address, telephone number or an email address at which they can be contacted.
